On 24 September 1951 Miss Charlotte BOMBLIES, born 18 February 1922, residing at 19 Aeussererepassauerstrasse, STRAUBING (N49/U54), Germany contacted City Police STRAUBING in reference to two (2) pieces of correspondence received by her from BERLIN (N53/475), Germany, and a visit from a person unknown to her. City Police, STRAUBING, notified Agent A of the above. Miss BOMBLIES was interviewed by Agent A on 28 September 1951 and related the following:(A-2)

On 28 June 1951 at 2230 hours a man unknown to BOMBLIES appeared at BOMBLIES' residence and asked if he could discuss her past activities as a radio clerk with the former German Air Force. BOMBLIES replied that it was too late to discuss anything and asked the man to return the next day. On 29 June 1951 the man came to BOMBLIES' residence again and introduced himself as Mr. BRZOZOWSKI. BRZOZOWSKI told BOMBLIES he was aware that she had been a radio technician during the second world war and asked if she would like to work as a radio technician again. BOMBLIES asked for whom would she work and BRZOZOWSKI answered, "The Federal Republic of Germany". BOMBLIES asked if he meant the Bonn Government, the East German Government or some American agency. BRZOZOWSKI stated that he was not at liberty to name which agency BOMBLIES would work for. BRZOZOWSKI then asked BOMBLIES if she would furnish him with a list of persons who were radio technicians in her units during the war, and BOMBLIES replied that she had no such list. BRZOZOWSKI then produced a paper from his wallet containing a list of names and addresses which BOMBLIES recognized as being persons she had served with during the war. The names are as follows:

In the course of conversation BRZOZOWSKI stated that he had been an officer in the navy during World War II and was considering returning to the navy. In answer to the statement that Germany has no navy BRZOZOWSKI replied, "Not now, but in one year we will have some of the finest ships afloat". At one point in the conversation BRZOZOWSKI stated that his residence is in KOENIGSBERG (ona), East Prussia. At another time he stated that his home was near FRANKFURT. BOMBLIES told BRZOZOWSKI that she did not desire to leave her family and home in STRAUBING and BRZOZOWSKI said he would make a full report of their visit, but did not say to whom he would make the report. Following their conversation BRZOZOWSKI departed from BOMBLIES' residence and she stated that she has neither seen nor heard from BRZOZOWSKI since 29 June 1951. (F-3)

BOMBLIES described BRZOZOWSKI as being about 5'5" in height, slender build, light blond wavy hair, pale face, and slightly cross-eyed. BRZOZOWSKI was attired in a grey suit, brown hat and a beige gabardine top coat.
